Lynda.Com Student Accounts

Rasmussen is providing educational accounts for the design students here at the college. Super cool right???

As you continue to move through your courses here you may see integration of these tutorials in the courses as well as Instructors providing suggestions to you to help you with your weekly lessons.

What is Lynda.com you ask???

It is an online resource to learn about the latest and greatest software technologies and techniques in all things art, design and much more.

Take a look at the following documentary on the brief history of this most amazing resource:
