If you have enough time you can ask the student what they think would be helpful in some of the guides or what has helped them.