Available through the Resources tab in your online course or by visiting https://guides.rasmussen.edu/nursing. There you will find:

- Helpful information for new students
- ATI support
- Research help
- Resources to support specific courses, such as Pharmacology, Nutrition, and Fundamentals
- Tutoring and test-taking help

NURSING RESEARCH

Rasmussen College provides access to the top nursing databases available, including CINAHL, Ovid Nursing Journals, Nursing Reference Center Plus, JBI Evidence-Based database, and many more!

- Check out the Nursing Research page of the online School of Nursing guide for:
  - Nursing research FAQs
  - Links to nursing databases
  - Research tutorials
  - Tips for effective searching
  - Step-by-step research suggestions
  - Evidence-based practice research support
ONLINE TUTORING SERVICES
Available through the Resources tab in your online course or student portal—click on the Tutoring link

- Live Tutoring: Live help is available without an appointment, but be sure to check the schedule and see if a tutor is available. Topics include TEAS, NCLEX, pharmacology, care plans, and more!
- Tutor Match: Schedule an appointment with a tutor from any of the Rasmussen College campuses.
- Skill Surfer: Skill Surfer covers math, writing skills, computer and technology skills, and test prep (including the NCLEX!).
- Writing Lab: Submit your paper and have it reviewed before submitting it for class. Your feedback is provided within 24-48 hours.

WEBINARS
Available through the Resources tab in your online course (look for the calendar) or through the webinar guide.
- Webinars are online, interactive “classes” you can attend to get started on the right foot or to refresh your knowledge. Topics include APA, basic computer skills, and more! Can’t attend live? Don’t worry! We archive our webinars so you can watch them on your own time.

Live Chat
Available through the Resources tab in your online course, the library home page, and through Answers. Live Chat is your chance to connect with a live librarian when you need support. Be sure to check the calendar for availability!

rasmussen.edu
ONLINE ACADEMIC GUIDES

Available through the Resources tab in your online course or by visiting http://guides.rasmussen.edu. Here are a few guides you will definitely want to bookmark:

- APA: Visit this guide to learn more about APA formatting, citations, references pages, and more!
- Writing Guide: Visit this guide to help you get up to speed on all things writing.
- Medical Terminology: Visit this guide to help you brush up on your medical terminology.
- Anatomy and Physiology: Visit this guide for a leg-up in your A&P courses!
- Medical Law and Ethics: Visit this guide to refresh yourself on medical law and ethics.
- Student Success Guide: Visit this guide if you are a new student.

ANSWERS DATABASE

Available through the Resources tab in your online course or by visiting http://rasmussen.libanswers.com. Answers: FAQs for the Rasmussen College Community is a collection of frequently asked questions (FAQs) and answers. Stuck in a course? Check out our FAQs to see what other students have been asking!

GRAMMARLY

Available through the Resources tab in your online course or through the student portal. Grammarly is a free software available 24/7 that checks grammar, mechanics, spelling, usage, and even plagiarism issues.

COURSE MATERIALS GUIDE

Available through the Resources tab in your online course or by visiting https://guides.rasmussen.edu/coursematerials. Here you will find help with the different course materials you will encounter:

- VitalSource eTextbooks
- Embedded course materials
- Library eBooks as textbooks